

Working With Families Experiencing Domestic Violence

This training provides “hands on” information on addressing differentiating domestic violence, the impact of trauma on victim behavior, “knowingly allowing” abuse, co-petitioning, battered parent adjudication, intersections with family court, and working with people who batter as parents.

December 1-2, 2016 Braxton County DHHR, Flatwoods

All trainings will be held from 9:30 am to 4:00 pm each day. Lunch and breaks are on your own.

Note: Participation in the one day “Dynamics and Impact of Domestic Violence” training is a prerequisite for this training.
