

Working with Families Experiencing Domestic Violence

The following “Working with Families Experiencing DV” trainings are open for attendance by domestic violence advocates and child welfare workers. Please select from the following:

- August 5, 2019, Berkeley County DHHR, Martinsburg
- October 11, 2019, Braxton County DHHR, Flatwoods
- January 10, 2020, Marion County DHHR, Fairmont
- April 3, 2020, Mercer County DHHR, Princeton
- June 4, 2020, WVCADV Statewide Office, Elkview

All trainings will be held from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Travel is not provided by WVCADV for this training. Lunch and breaks are on your own.

Note: Participation in the one day “Dynamics and Impact of Domestic Violence” training is a prerequisite to this training for any provisional licensed/restricted licensed DHHR staff. Advocates are strongly advised to attend “Dynamics and Impact of Domestic Violence” as a prerequisite as well.

Participants will:

- ◆ Obtain “hands on” information on addressing differentiating domestic violence and the impact of trauma on victim behavior,
- ◆ Understand “knowingly allowing” policy, co-petitioning, and battered parent adjudications,
- ◆ Analyze intersections with family court and working with people who batter as parents.
