

Working with the Domestic Violence Offender in the Child Welfare System

The following “Working with the DV Offender in the Child Welfare System” trainings are open for attendance by domestic violence advocates and child welfare workers. Please select from the following:

- August 12, 2019, WVCADV Office, Elkview
- November 4, 2019, Marion County DHHR, Fairmont
- February 7, 2020, Mercer County DHHR, Princeton
- May 5, 2020, Berkeley County DHHR, Martinsburg

All trainings will be held from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Travel is not provided by WVCADV for this training. Lunch and breaks are on your own.

Note: Participation in the one day “Working w/Families Experiencing DV” training is a prerequisite to this training for any provisional licensed/restricted licensed DHHR staff. Advocates are strongly advised to attend “Working w/Families Experiencing DV” as a prerequisite as well.

Participants will:

- ◆ Obtain “hands on” information on how to interpret battering behaviors and the impact of those behaviors on adult and child victims,
- ◆ Understand how to properly access highly dangerous/potentially lethal behaviors,
- ◆ Determine how to choose appropriate services for the offender including how to accessing and defining if the offender has made a meaningful change.
